Applicant's Rights

You have the right to request a copy of your individual criminal record received from the FBI and that request must be in writing. You must notify the Airport Security Coordinator (ASC) or designee within 30 days in writing of your intent to correct any information you believe to be inaccurate. The Airport must obtain a copy, or accept a copy from you, of the revised FBI record, or a certified true copy of the information from the appropriate court, prior to granting unescorted access authority. The ASC is the individual point of contact if you have any questions about the results of the Criminal History Record Check (CHRC).

Volusia County Privacy Statement

Pursuant to the requirements of Public Law 93-579 (Privacy Act of 1974), notice is hereby given that the authority to collect information requested on the Daytona Beach International Airport Badge Application for a new and/or renewal Airport Identification Badge is 42 U.S.C. 301, Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1953; and U.S.C. Section 552a. Disclosure of the requested information is not mandatory. Applicant is advised, however, that the principal purpose for collecting the information is to enable the sponsor/employer and/or the VCAD to conduct a background investigation and thereby determine whether the applicant meets the criteria required for the issuance of a SIDA badge. The identification badge will not be issued unless the background investigation is completed and the employee meets the required criteria. The information may also be used, when deemed appropriate, in a proceeding to revoke or suspend the identification badge. The information collected and contained in the applicant's file may be provided to any and all employees of VCAD who have a need for the records in the performance of their duties.

TSA Privacy Act Notification

Authority: 49 U.S.C Sections 114, 44936 authorizes the collection of this information

Purpose: The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) will use the biographical information to conduct a Security Threat Assessment to evaluate your eligibility for the program to which you are applying. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics will be provided to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories). The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI. DHS will also transmit the fingerprints for enrollment into the US-VISIT's Automated Biometrics Identification System (IDENT). If you provide your Social Security Number (SSN), DHS may provide your name and SSN to the Social Security Administration (SSA) to compare that information against SSA's records to ensure the validity of your name and SSN.

Routine Uses: This information may be shared with third parties during the course of an STA, employment investigation, or adjudication of a waiver or appeal request to the extent necessary to obtain information pertinent to the assessment, investigation, or adjudication of your application or in accordance with the routine uses identified in the Transportation Security Threat Assessment System (T-STAS), DHS/TSA 002. For as long as your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent or without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses.

Disclosure: Furnishing this information (including your SSN) is voluntary; however, if you do not provide your SSN or any other information requested, DHS may be unable to complete your application for identification media.

Applicant Responsibilities

1. All identification badges remain the property of the Volusia County Airport Department (VCAD). The badge is non-transferable to any other person.
2. The badge must be displayed on the upper portion of the body, on the outermost garment, and must be clearly visible while in the Secured Area, SIDA, or AOA. The badge must be clearly visible and recognizable when worn. If a container or holder is used, that container or holder must be uncolored and clear. The badge is not to be defaced in any manner. No other markings or stickers may be added to the badge.
3. Everyone issued an identification badge must challenge and, if applicable, provide escorts according to training.
4. Identification badges are issued for security purposes and are subject to the rules and regulations of the Federal Aviation Administration, the Transportation Security Administration, VCAD, and the sponsoring tenant.
5. Expiring badges must be renewed prior to the expiration date on the face of the badge. Door access is automatically revoked on the expiration date. Most badges expire in two (2) years. Airport Ground Vehicle Operators (AGVO) recurrent training is required annually. Contractor badges are issued for the duration of the project, up to two (2) years.
6. Recurrent SIDA training is required bi-annually and must be completed within the three-months prior to badge expiration. If the recurrent class is not taken prior to the expiration date, the next available full SIDA class must be taken. If training is not taken prior to the expiration date, the expired badge must be returned VCAD.
7. SIDA badge holders who do not renew expired badges within thirty (30) days of expiration will need to complete a new badge application, undergo a fingerprint-based CHRC, and take the full SIDA before a new badge will be issued. Use of an expired badge is a violation and may result in denial of badge renewal, criminal penalties, and/or civil penalties.
8. VCAD must be notified immediately of any lost/stolen badges. A fee of $50 is charged for a first lost/stolen badge. A fee of $100.00 is charged for a second lost/stolen badge or one not returned upon termination of employment. If a badge holder has lost two badges, requests for additional replacements must be approved by the ASC or Director of Aviation.
9. Badge holders must immediately notify VCAD if they become aware that any access control portal, access control system or a component thereof has been breached, compromised, or threatened by any means.
10. Please note that badge applicants will need to provide two forms of identification when submitting their application, one of which is government issued. In addition, one of them must be a photo-ID. The preferred forms of identification are a passport or a driver's license and a social security card. Badge applicants who do not have these forms of identification, should contact their employers for acceptable alternate forms.
11. Badge holders agree to abide by all applicable Federal, State, local, and VCAD rules, regulations, laws, ordinances, and training received relative to his/her term of employment or term of lease at the Daytona Beach International Airport.
